

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be glossy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—(Adv.)

"HELPED ME RIGHT AWAY"

Kentucky Lady Says Two Bottles of Cardui Surprised Her by Acting So Quickly.

Relief, Ky.—Mrs. Sarah M. Hill, of this place, writes: "I can't praise Cardui too much, for it is a wonderful medicine for women."

Eight years ago I began to feel not quite so well as usual. . . . I was not able to do anything. It seemed like I was dwindling away, and kept getting more puny every day. I was weak and pale and could not stand on my feet long. . . . I had no doctor, but I knew by my feelings that I had womanly weakness.

After I decided to try Cardui, I bought one bottle. It seemed as if the very first few doses began to help me. I was surprised that anything could begin to act so quickly. But it helped me right away. I know it did because I began immediately to get strong.

After I finished that first bottle, I bought another. When I had finished that second bottle, I was all right. I did not need a third bottle. I kept right on getting stronger until I was as strong as ever, and I have kept so. . . . Now I am as well and as strong and as able to do my work as I ever was in my life."

Try Cardui today.

TEUTONS UNABLE TO PIERCE LINE

Railway From Amiens to Clermont Objective of Repeated Heavy Attacks.

FRENCH TAKE NEW AREA

Artillery Fighting Intense Between Montdidier and Noyon—Boches Suffer.

Paris, April 5.—German forces continued their attacks during the night, says the official statement, issued today by the war office. Despite the superiority of the German effectiveness which the statement says were spent less, the Teutons were unable to reach their objective, which was the railway from Amiens to Clermont.

The French regiments by their resistance and counter-attacks, maintained the line in its entirety, the war office announced. The French troops conquered the greater part of Epinette wood, north of the town of Orville-Sorel. All German efforts to dislodge the Frenchmen were in vain.

The French captured St. Aignan farm, southeast of Griesvaines and held it against all assaults. In the north the French withdrew their positions to the west of Castel. They threw back the Germans from Arriere Cour wood, west of Mally Rameval.

tacks during the night with undiminished violence, throwing fresh forces into the battle. We have identified fifteen divisions on this part of the front, seven of them fresh ones. Notwithstanding the marked superiority in the strength of the enemy forces, which the Germans used up recklessly, they did not obtain their objective, which was the railway from Amiens to Clermont, as is shown by documents found on prisoners. French regiments resisting step by step, and counter-attacking energetically, maintained their line in its entirety and inflicted cruel losses on the enemy. Meanwhile in the north the French withdrew their positions to west of Castel. They ejected the Germans from Arriere Cour wood, west of Mally Rameval. Southeast of Griesvaines a brilliant counter-attack gave the French the St. Aignan farm, which they held against all assaults.

Despite False Statements. "Between Montdidier and Noyon the artillery fighting became very intense. French troops attacked the German lines and obtained possession of the greater part of Epinette wood, six hundred yards north of Orville-Sorel. All efforts of the Germans to dislodge the French were vain. Further east a local operation enabled the French to enlarge their positions north of Mont Benand, which the Germans, notwithstanding their false statements, were never able to take from the French."

POISON IN STOCKING SUGGESTS SUICIDE

Mrs. D. H. Wood, of Chicago, Dies Mysteriously in the Patten Hotel.

Shortly after emerging from the bathroom of her room at the Hotel Patten Thursday afternoon, Mrs. D. H. Wood, of Chicago, wife of the sales manager of the Brunswick-Balke-Coller Talking Machine company, of Cincinnati, fell into a swoon and died shortly after physicians reached her. It was specified in the death certificate that from the best observation of the doctors a cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of Mrs. Wood's demise.

After the body had been removed to the funeral residence of Wann & Son, 708 Georgia avenue, an envelope containing cyanide of potassium was found inside the stocking of the deceased. She is said to have been dependent, and it is understood that there had been domestic troubles, but Mr. Wood thought he had succeeded in affecting a reconciliation, as their trip to Chattanooga was for that purpose, it was learned Friday. The husband appeared to be deeply affected over his wife's death.

When Mrs. Wood was stricken in her room her husband at once sought to get a physician, and hotel bell boys were also endeavoring to locate doctors. Physicians were soon on the scene, but the woman lived only a short time after they arrived.

The body was sent Thursday night to Chicago. Mr. Wood accompanied the remains. He has been stopping at the Patten for some time while in this territory. He is well-known among traveling men who have stopped at the hostelry in question.

WHISKY AND DICE LEAD TO MURDER

Will Crawford Accepts Indeterminate Sentence—Liked Fast Society.

A crap game, which inevitably leads to excessive drinking, resulted in the murder several months ago of "Pinkie" Lax, colored, by Will Crawford, also colored, and Saturday morning another inevitable thing happened and Crawford was convicted that the ways of the transgressor are hard when a ten to twenty years' sentence in the state penitentiary was handed him as the result of the taking of human life. Crawford's cause was of such a nature that his attorney allowed him to accept a sentence of from ten to twenty years instead of going to trial before judge and jury. In other words, Crawford thought so well of Gen. Whitaker's proposition of "take, low and travel with it" that he grabbed it appreciatively.

The facts regarding the case are that after spending about two-thirds of a week's wages for a quart of liquor, some one made the next unwise move and pulled out a pair of dice. Then the bones rolled high, the sky being the limit. They shot 30 cents or any part thereof with a reckless indifference. The game progressed smoothly for a while and a drink was transported from "hip to mouth" every few minutes.

Then the liquor-beclouded brains became muddled about 30 cents and who had lost or won, and naturally an argument arose which quickly paved the way to a fight and then in the twinkling of an eye murder had been committed with a knife in the hands of Crawford.

Another defendant was E. B. Johnson, a colored boy. Johnson wrote some checks and signed some business men's names to them. He was caught and was given five years in four cases, with the further order that one of the sentences be served to its limit. The others will run concurrently.

FEELS LIKE SHE DID 40 YEARS AGO

Says She Wouldn't Take Ten Dollars a Bottle for Good Tanlac Did.

"I was on the flat of my back in bed with nervous prostration when I started taking Tanlac, but now I feel as well as I did forty years ago," said Mrs. Sarah Lavery, who resides at 538 Huguenot street, Nashville, Tenn., some time ago.

"I had been in a bad fix this way for a long time," she continued. "My stomach would give me severe pain and I had fearful sick headaches and would have attacks of dizziness. My kidneys were affected and I began to have rheumatism of the worst kind. My joints were all swollen and my hands were so out of joint I couldn't hold a knitting needle. I was so nervous and unstrung that I would cry if you crooked a finger at me and I had begun to think my time for this world was short."

"Well, sir, I wouldn't take $10 a bottle for the good this Tanlac is doing me. I feel twenty years younger already. My nerves are as quiet as a lamb; I can eat anything I want without the least bit of trouble and my rheumatism is disappearing. I can knit all I want to and am in a good humor all the time. I feel like nothing could have done all this for me but Tanlac, and I was everybody to know about it."

Tanlac is sold in Chattanooga exclusively by the Live & Let Live Drug Co.—(Adv.)
